

Center for Digital Inquiry and Learning (CDIL)

2019 OUR/CDIL Undergraduate Summer Fellowship Program

Description: The CDIL Undergraduate Summer Fellowship Program provides funding for an undergraduate student currently majoring in a College of Letters, Arts and Social Sciences discipline to work on the development of CDIL-related digital scholarship projects, be they projects related to CDIL-connected faculty or that of the student's own creation.

Funding for this fellowship is provided by the Office of Undergraduate Research (OUR) and the Office of Research and Economic Development (ORED).

Expectations: The fellow will be expected to work in the CDIL during 10 weeks of the summer for approximately 20 hours per week at a rate of $13/hr. S/he will work on the development of CDIL-related projects, as well as on any administrative tasks or research needed for the center.

During the fall semester, the Undergraduate Fellow will present on their work in the CDIL, either as a traditional presentation or as a workshop.

Who is eligible: Any undergraduate currently enrolled in a CLASS-related undergraduate program.

Deadline to apply: March 15, 2019

Number of awards: 1

Nature of the award: Summer funding to work in the CDIL during the summer for ~20 hours per week at a rate of $13/hr.

Duration of program: Summer 2019

Application and review process: Applicants provide a statement of interest (300 words) and background (150 words) via an online form. Applications will be reviewed by a committee of staff and faculty connected to the CDIL. Finalists may be asked to interview and/or to provide additional references.

Please fill out the application form here,

https://uidaho.co1.qualtrics.com/jfe/form/SV_eLQjthbshzmz3bNz

Questions? Contact Evan Williamson at ewilliamson@uidaho.edu